University of Pennsylvania Overview of Graduate Student Population

Total Student Population: 24,000

Undergraduate Population: 10,500

Graduate Population: 13,500

12 Graduate Schools:

- Annenberg: 80 students
- Social Policy & Practice: 80 students
- Veterinary Medicine: 5 students
- Dental Medicine: 655 students
- Design School: 650 students
- Nursing School: 630 students
- Law School: 885 students
- Engineering & Applied Science: 470 students
- Graduate School of Education: 1450 students
- Perelman School of Medicine: 1100 students
- Arts & Sciences: 1490 students
- Wharton: 2170 students

All numbers approximate from 2016-2017 school year

The Graduate & Professional Student Assembly (GAPSA) represents all graduate and professional students at Penn.

GAPSA does this through a variety of advocacy, social, and financial programs and consists of a General Assembly, an Executive Board, and various committees.