Confidentiality Statement

The Editor-in-Chief and PEC Reviewer treat every submitted manuscript as privileged communication. The Editor-in-Chief and Review Editors must exclude themselves from the review of any manuscript that might involve a conflict of interest or the appearance thereof. To this end, PEC reviewers will disclose to the Editor-in-Chief any conflicts of interest that makes their knowledge of the information included in the manuscript inappropriate. The editing process rests on the assumption that all manuscripts will be treated by the assigned reviewer and Editor-in-Chief as privileged information, therefore, reviewers should not use knowledge of the work to further their own interests.

On submission of a manuscript, authors may disqualify potential reviewers of the Postdoc Editors Club, e.g., potential competitor etc. Authors are encouraged to recommend to the Editor-in-Chief specific PEC Reviewers whose scientific background allows them to thoroughly review the manuscript.

We agree to maintain all components of the above confidentiality statement.
