A former high school and college basketball player, Bob Hurley has been the head coach for St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, N.J., for 38 years. With a career record of 1017-110, he is the winningest high school coach in New Jersey history. In 2008 he entered the national record books with 25 all-time state titles and six undefeated seasons. Three times USA Today named him National High School Coach of the Year. Hurley has mentored 150 players who received college scholarships; five players have gone on to the NBA and two to major league baseball.

Only the second high school coach ever to be inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Hurley has spent a lifetime motivating and guiding others in athletics and in life.
