BRIDGING THE GAPS
CHANGE
SAVE THE DATE!

Friday, October 9, 2015, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Rodeph Shalom, 615 N. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19123

Join the Bridging the Gaps (BTG) Network and keynote speaker Danny Glover, award-winning actor, producer, humanitarian and activist.

Share an information-packed morning of discussion with individuals concerned about health and well-being in urban communities. Celebrate 25 years of BTG—learning from hands-on experience and being the change we hope to see in underserved communities.

For information, call 215-898-4141, e-mail btgchip@mail.med.upenn.edu or visit www.bridgingthegaps.info.

Danny Glover has been a commanding presence on screen, stage and television for more than 30 years.

A recognized community activist and philanthropist, Glover advocates for economic justice, education and health care access in the United States and Africa. For these efforts he received a 2006 DGA Honor and a 2011 Pioneer Award from the National Civil Rights Museum. He has served as a Goodwill Ambassador for the United Nations Development Program and currently serves as UNICEF Ambassador. In 2014 he received an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from the University of San Francisco.

As an actor, his film credits include “Places in the Heart,” “Witness,” “The Color Purple,” the “Lethal Weapon” franchise, “Dreamgirls” and countless others.
