CAMB 700 Spring 2018 syllabus
Director: Michael Betts
Co-director: Jim Riley

Synopsis: CAMB 700 is designed to provide guidance towards a successful PhD qualifying exam in the form of an R21/F32 style grant application. The course will be an interactive experience organized to provide students with assistance in summarizing their projects, critical thinking, clarity in writing, strategies for editing, understanding grant components and organization, etc. Course directors will be available prior to and immediately after student presentations for additional critical feedback as necessary.

Time and location:
M/Th 3:30-5 PM
401 Johnson Pavilion

Schedule:
1. Feb 8. Intro to course, grant structure. 3 minute elevator pitches by each student: Each student please prepare a 3 minute (will be timed, with hard stop!) synopsis of your projects. Betts/Riley