

Penn Center for AIDS Research
Second Annual Retreat
February 9, 2000
BRB II/III Auditorium and Lobby

PROGRAM

8:00 AM  Registration and Breakfast (Lobby)

8:30 - 8:45 AM  Opening Remarks
James A. Hoxie, M.D.
Director, Penn Center for AIDS Research

8:45 - 9:20 AM  Glen Gaulton, Ph.D.
University of Pennsylvania, Department of Pathology and Lab Medicine
HIV Thymic Infection: Fact and Fancy

9:20 - 9:55 AM  Benhur Lee, M.D.
University of Pennsylvania, Department of Pathology and Lab Medicine
Rear Window: A View into the Complexities of Coreceptor Usage

9:55 - 10:15 AM  Break (Lobby)

10:15 - 10:50 AM  Ian Frank, M.D.
University of Pennsylvania, Infectious Diseases Division
Strategic Antiretroviral Treatment Interruption Providing Clues to HIV Pathogenesis

10:50 - 11:50 AM  Ronald Desrosiers, Ph.D.
New England Primate Research Center, Harvard Medical School
Immune Evasion in AIDS: Strategies for Achieving Attenuation of Simian Immunodeficiency Virus

12:00 - 1:30 PM  Lunch (Lobby)

1:30 - 2:05 PM  Barbara Turner, M.D., M.S.Ed.
University of Pennsylvania, Department of Medicine
Challenges of Antiretroviral Treatment and Adherence in Drug Users

2:05 - 2:25 PM  Antonia Villarruel, Ph.D.
University of Pennsylvania, School of Nursing
HIV Prevention in Latino Youth

2:25 - 3:25 PM  Susan Allen, M.D., M.P.H.
University of Alabama, Department of Epidemiology and Int'l Health
HIV Research in Developing Countries: What Are the Relevant Research Questions and How Can We Feasibly Answer Them?

3:30 - 5:00 PM  Reception and Poster Session (Lobby)

2