Please join us in welcoming back our MPH Alumni for an evening of discussion and refreshments as the Penn Public Health Society sponsors a Graduate Career Panel. Esteemed alumni from a variety of disciplines within Public Health will discuss their experience during and after their Penn MPH education. Their talk will include information on their career paths and their current positions, as well as address questions about an effective job search. We look forward to seeing you there!

*Snacks and light refreshments will be provided

Penn Public Health Society (PPHS) is a student-led society for the University of Pennsylvania's Masters of Public Health Program. Together with the Master of Public Health program and the Center for Public Health Initiatives (CPHI), the Penn Public Health Society contributes to the public health community at Penn, as well as to the local and global communities.

Please RSVP to this event by visiting the PPHS homepage at <http://www.cphi.upenn.edu/PPHS.shtml> or email pphs@dolphin.upenn.edu
