

Certificate in Health Care Innovation

*Learn about health care innovation
from the world's best at Penn.*

...all while using your employee tuition benefits.

Your colleagues from across PSOM
are learning how they can transform health care,
by taking the online Certificate in Health Care Innovation
offered by the Department of Medical Ethics and Health Policy.
Courses cover health policy, operations management,
and behavioral economics.
Use your tuition benefits (for full-time University employees)
to cover tuition and fees.

The first class began on Tuesday, but you still have time to join this week.
