* These short essays are un-graded opportunities for students to begin thinking through the ethical aspects of issues of concern to them. These should be seen as preparation for BIOE 996, the BIOE final research project. Students will fill out a DMD712/812 or a DMB685/785 form at the beginning of the semester in which the DMD course is taken. This form will briefly outline the ethical issues about which the student will write and will identify a reader (to be chosen from DMD MBE alums or current BIOE faculty/fellows) who will read and comment on the essays at the end of the semester.

 The final project is a 15-25 page research paper on a topic of the students choice.
