NIH Medical Research Scholars Program

• A year-long residential research enrichment program for medical, dental, and veterinary students in Bethesda, MD
• A mentored basic, clinical, or translational research project
• Will ultimately have ~70 students
• Prior research experience is desirable but not required
• Benefits:
  – 12-month stipend (currently $33,700)
  – Relocation expenses to and from Bethesda
  – Residential housing (paid for thru your stipend)
  – Domestic conference travel expenses
  – Health insurance
  – Tuition support for scientific courses and textbooks
• Application deadline: ~ January 15, 2016