

Curriculum switches from to case-based model

2002

Sayre (now Sayre High School) becomes the sole partner school

2004

First academic publications regarding the Pipeline model; First investigations into efficacy

2007

Dr. Sharon Lewis Joins Pipeline faculty and directs neuroscience curriculum.

2009

1998

Dr. Karen Hamilton establishes the Neuroscience Pipeline Program as part of the AAMC 3000 x 2000 Campaign.

2003

Netter Center expands neuroscience curriculum at Sayre Middle School; Sayre replaces Overbrook as a partner school; Pipeline Program Dr. Roy Hamilton becomes Curriculum Director

2005

Neurology residents are first recruited to Pipeline Program

2008

Guiding partnerships with sister institutions founded

2013

GI and Epidemiology added to Pipeline curriculum.