(Student’s Full First and Last Name)

In recognizing that the success of the ABI summer research volunteer experience depends on each individual’s cooperation and commitment to the highest standards of conduct, you are required to agree to the following:

• Abide fully by the University of Pennsylvania’s Code of Conduct and Code of Academic Integrity, Penn Code of Ethics, Penn Policy on Acceptable Use of Electronic Resources, Airways Biology Initiative dress code, and abide by all laws and other relevant legal conditions surrounding the program. These articles may be found at:
  ➢ Penn Code of Conduct: http://www.upenn.edu/osl/conduct.html
  ➢ Penn Code of Academic Integrity: http://www.upenn.edu/osl/acadint.html
  ➢ Penn Code of Ethics: http://www.seas.upenn.edu/ugrad/ethicscode.html

• Conduct yourself in accordance with the highest personal standards of character and integrity and not engage in any behavior that is deemed as inappropriate or unacceptable by the Head of Laboratory/Internship Supervisor, or an authority of the School of Medicine or University of Pennsylvania.

• Actively engage in the practice of good personal safety behaviors.

If, in the opinion of the Head of Laboratory/Internship Supervisor or an authorized officer of the School, you are found to be in non-compliance of this agreement, the volunteer’s training may be terminated immediately.
