

Centers for AIDS Research (CFAR)
Social and Behavioral Sciences Research Network (SBSRN)
11th National Scientific Meeting
“Getting to Zero and Ending the HIV Epidemic”

Hosted by UCSF-Gladstone CFAR and the Center for AIDS Prevention Studies
Sponsored by the National Institutes of Health

Mentoring the Next Generation Agenda

Tuesday, October 24th

- 8:45 - 9:00 Registration and Coffee
- 9:00 – 9:10 Welcome
Marguerita Lightfoot, PhD
Director, Center for AIDS Prevention Studies
Disparities Core Director, CFAR
- 9:10 to 9:30 Meeting Overview and Goals
SBSRN Executive Committee
- Michael Blank, PhD*
Assistant Professor of Psychology in Psychiatry
- Ralph DiClemente, PhD*
Director, Professor, Rollins School of Public Health
- David Metzger, PhD*
Director, Professor of Social Policy in Psychiatry
- 9:30 – 10:15 Crafting a Successful NIH Grant, Model & Structural Parts of Grant, Mechanisms for Support for New Investigators, and Q & A
Michael Blank, PhD
Carl Latkin, PhD
- 10:15 – 11:00 Writing scientific papers and developing a publishing pipeline strategy
Willi McFarland, MD, PhD
- 11:00 – 11:15 Break
- 11:15 – 11:45 Q & A with Project Officers
NIH representatives
- 11:45 – 12:15 Q & A with NIH Reviewers
Current and former NIH committee review group members
- 12:15 - 1:30 Lunch
- 1:30 - 2:30 Individual Presentations
Small group feedback
- 2:45 - 4:00 Individual presentations continued

Thank you for attending!