6th & Market Streets
Philadelphia, PA 19106

The dinner honors the memory of the first Associate Dean for Minority Affairs in the nation and recognizes her many other accomplishments as well as those of Penn Med students from groups underrepresented in the medical profession. It is in essence a celebration of minority achievement at Penn Med.

Notes:

- Dress for Penn Preview is casual.
- For those arriving after 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 24, check the bulletin board outside of Suite 100 (1st floor Stemmler Hall) and the Status page (www.med.upenn.edu/apps/my/pennmed_application) for contact information.
- Luggage can be stored in the Student Lounge during the Penn Preview program.
- Please make sure you make arrangements with your student host for your overnight accommodations and your luggage pick-up from the Student Lounge. You will need a medical student to access the Student Lounge after office hours.
