Resource Fair Exhibitor Registration Form

FAQs

Why should we exhibit at the PAN conference?

This conference is established as the tri-state area’s singular showcase event focused on promoting supports and services for adults with ASD, including transition-to-adulthood issues. Bringing more than 300 professionals, educators, family members and individuals with autism together for an event that is highly anticipated each year, the PAN conference is an excellent outreach opportunity for those who support and serve adolescents and adults with autism spectrum disorders.

What are the benefits of exhibiting? Your organization will receive…

• Exposure to more than 300 attendees on the day of the conference.
• A listing on the PAN conference webpage.
• A listing in the conference program.
• One complimentary registration for the conference.
• “Exhibitor” ribbons on name badges.
• Continental breakfast and lunch for representative.

What are the fees to exhibit?

For-Profit Organization: $375
Non-Profit Organization: $250
— must have 501(c)3 status

Resource fair exhibitors are limited to the first 20 registrants.
The Penn Autism Network retains sole discretion in approving exhibitors.
