A Prayer for Us All

Chaplain Edmund Sherrill

God of all, we turn to you, because we know of no other help. Families and communities are being victimized by the effects of COVID-19. Even as we go through the pain and difficulties, we have the audacity to believe that you can and will bring us through it. Help us to know how to support one another and care for those in need.

We pray particularly for those who are grieving because of this virus, reeling from the sudden loss of loved ones. May they somehow know your fellowship in their suffering, your comfort in their loss, and your hope in their despair. We name before you those known to us who are vulnerable and scared - the frail, the sick and the elderly. We also remember those doctors, pastors and family-members who are caring for all such people right now.

God of all Comfort, you are powerful and merciful; may this be our prayer – Amen
