“A DAY IN THE LIFE: A PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS UNDERREPRESENTED IN MEDICINE”
February 29, 2020
9:00 am - 3:00 pm

AGENDA

8:30-9:15 a.m. Registration and Optional Continental Breakfast

9:30-10:15 a.m. Overview of Medical School Admissions; Dr. Vivian Lee, Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology

10:15-11:00 a.m. Keynote Speaker: The Meandering Pathway to Becoming a Physician; Dr. Sharon Lewis, Associate Professor of Clinical Neurology

11:00-11:45 a.m. Panel: The Routes to Medical School; Medical Student Panel (Break Immediately Following)

12:00-12:30 p.m. First Activity (See activities below)

12:30-1:15 p.m. Lunch Discussion with Students

1:20-2:30 p.m. 2nd and 3rd Concurrent Activities (30 minute sessions) (1:20-1:50 pm, 1:50-2:20 pm)

Freshman/Sophomore

- Testing Your Interest In Medicine
- Funding Your Medical Education and the Application Process
- Ultrasound

Junior/Senior/Post-Bacs

- Personal Statements and Interview Skills/Gap Year Activities
- Wellness
- Suturing/Clinical Skills/Ultrasound

2:45 p.m. Program Closure / Mingling with Students (Optional)

(Coffee will be served at the end of the Program)