GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Flu Shots available through Student Health Services

The Student Campus Compact requires all enrolled students to receive a flu shot this year. PSIP and many other insurers cover the flu shot for free. Students can receive a flu shot at Student Health or your primary care provider.

Reminder: Penn Walking Escorts

The Penn Division of Public Safety provides a socially-distanced walking escort service. Uniformed Allied Universal Public Safety Officers provide walking escorts to all campus locations. This service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, between 30th to 43rd Streets and Market Street to Baltimore Avenue.
The walking escort service also extends west to 50th Street, and north/south from Spring Garden to Woodland Avenue, between 10 a.m. and 12 a.m. via the University’s partnership with the University District Ambassador Program.

How to Request a Walking Escort:
- Ask any Public Safety Officer on patrol or inside a building
- Call 215-898-WALK(9255) or 511 (from campus phone)
- Use one of the many building and blue-light ephones located on and off Penn’s Campus.

UPCOMING EVENTS

IRM Symposium on Nov. 4 | Abstract deadline Oct. 28, 5PM
REGISTER NOW For our cross-cutting exploration of early human development

On November 4, 2020, the Institute for Regenerative Medicine (IRM) will be hosting a special symposium focused on the science and ethics of early human developmental biology. This symposium will feature world leaders in embryo lineage & patterning, synthetic embryology, uterine transplantation, and bioethics discussing how advances in stem cell science are challenging our understanding of the first days of life and testing ethical guidelines from an earlier era of research.

IRM is still accepting lightning talk abstract submissions! If you are interested in being part of this special event, please review lightning talk information on the website, then indicate your interest during registration.

Dolores Zohrab Liebmann Fellowship | November 29 Deadline

Penn is permitted to forward three nominees for the 2021-22 Dolores Zohrab Liebmann Fund fellowship, which pays full tuition plus a stipend of $18,000 for up to three years. U.S. citizens pursuing a graduate degree in 2021-22 in any recognized field of study in the humanities, social sciences, or natural sciences (including law, medicine, engineering, architecture or other formal professional training) are eligible. The selection committee has a strong preference for supporting scholarly endeavors.

An internal selection process will be coordinated by the Center for Undergraduate Research & Fellowships. For the purposes of the internal competition, students should complete the application and submit the requested supporting documentation by November 29, 2020. This internal Penn application requires 1 letter of recommendation from a professor (not a postdoc or lecturer) who has taught or worked closely with you. You will request this through the application process, but please alert your preferred recommender as soon as possible so as to give your recommender ample time to submit letters of recommendation before the Penn Deadline. See the CURF website for additional application requirements.
