

Guidance for Penn Visitors who will be working in Botswana

The government of Botswana has specific requirements for visitors who carry out work in country. These requirements apply to most of Penn's visitors (clinicians, faculty, students, staff) coming to Botswana through BUP. These instructions will help you to determine what is required of you to work as a non-citizen of Botswana i.e., if you need to apply for a visa, a work permit, and/or to register with Botswana Health Professions Council (BHPC) and what you need to prepare in order to do so.

Please read through Step 1, 2, and 3 and keep the following information in mind as you prepare for your trip to Botswana:

- Check BUSINESS on the immigration form when you arrive at the airport in Gaborone.
- If a document or copy needs to be notarized, you must do this before leaving for Botswana. Getting documents notarized in Botswana is very difficult and expensive. Not having documents notarized prior to arriving in Botswana will cause delays and you will not be able to start working.
- Copies cannot be reused for a different application. For example, your notarized copy of your passport for the permit waiver cannot be resubmitted with your BHPC application. Make sure that you have the correct number of notarized copies and documents for each application.
- If you have a connecting flight via South Africa, make sure you have two consecutive blank pages in your passport. This is required by South African immigration and it will be checked at the airport in Johannesburg, even if Botswana is your final destination. .
- Please note that these new governmental policies are still in development thus subject to change. We will provide updates if necessary.

Step 1. Determine if you need a visa to enter Botswana.

Check here to find out if you need a visa prior to arrival. Individuals with a US Passport do not need a visa to enter Botswana.

Use the table below to determine how to apply for a visa if you need one. Please be mindful of the deadlines.

Visa (only for visitors with a passport from a country that requires a visa to enter Botswana. Visitors with a US Passport do not need a visa)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fully completed immigration supplementary form 1 (contact Lindiwe Madi to obtain a copy) • Notarize first 3 pages of passport (showing validity, photograph & history). Email and scan to Lindiwe Madi • 2 x recent colored passport size photos • If previously applied for VISA, please attach the copy of outcome • Employment/business-relevant information/documents required (offer letter/invitation letter, contract and confirmation of employment including relevant qualifications) • Travel schedule/flight itinerary/bookings • Meeting schedule (if coming to attend or organize meeting) • Fee P1500 ($150) 	You should apply for a visa at least 30 days prior to your travel Your visa must be issued prior to your arrival in Botswana. Immigration agents will check for your visa at the airport.

Step 2. Determine what is required of you to work in Botswana, i.e. work permits, BHPC registration.

Use the table below to determine if you need a work permit and if you do what type of work permit, if you need to register with BHPC, and the associated fees for each application. This will be based on the length of your visit and the type of work that you will be doing in country.

Visit Duration	Type of work	Work Permit?	BHPC Registration?	Fees?*
Less than three months	Non-clinical: participating in and/or conducting meetings, conducting or assisting in research, participating in an internship, and/ or teaching a BOTA accredited training	Yes, you are required to apply for a Permit Waiver	No	No

Step 3. Determine application requirements and submit required documents per their deadlines.

Once you have determined what is required of you to work in Botswana short or long term (ie work permits, BHPC registration) in Step 2, you must now determine what each application requires of you and gather the necessary documents. Please be mindful of the submission deadlines and instructions – this is key to being able to start your work in a timely manner.
