Please RSVP with name and email address to kathshea@upenn.edu for reservations.

Dr. Manderscheid serves as the Executive Director of the National Association of County Behavioral Health and Developmental Disability Directors. Concurrently, he is Adjunct Professor at the Department of Mental Health, Bloomberg School of Public Health, Johns Hopkins University, and Immediate Past President of ACMHA—The College for Behavioral Health Leadership. During the Clinton National Health Care Reform debate, Dr. Manderscheid served as Senior Policy Advisor on National Health Care Reform in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. At that time, Dr. Manderscheid was also a member of the Mental Health and Substance Abuse Work Group of the President's Task Force on Health Care Reform. He has continued this work in support of the implementation of the Affordable Care Act of 2010. Dr. Manderscheid is a recognized national and international thought leader in mental health and substance use. Throughout his career, he has emphasized and promoted peer and family concerns.