

Virtual Offerings from the Office of Inclusion and Diversity

Call for Submissions:

COVID-19: Stories, Insights and Perspectives

To maintain a sense of community and togetherness we are inviting faculty, staff and students to share any experiences and thoughts related to COVID-19. Contributions can include any topic of interest including but not limited to screening, testing, treatment, concern about vulnerable patients, patient stories, match day/graduation and lessons learned thus far.

The submissions are intended to be short (no more than 600 words) and will be posted to our website at www.med.upenn.edu/inclusion-and-diversity.

If you are interested, please send submissions to: oid@mail.med.upenn.edu
