

Penn LDI: Generative AI in Health Care Conference, Upcoming Events, and Op-Ed Writing Course

In collaboration with Wharton Healthcare Analytics, Penn LDI recently hosted a conference on the regulatory landscape for AI use in health care. Speakers included U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Acting Chief Artificial Intelligence Officer, Micky Tripathi, PhD, MPP, and Jenny Ma, JD, Principal Deputy Director of HHS, alongside several Penn faculty.

Other recent Penn LDI events included a fireside chat with former CDC Director Rochelle Walensky, MD, MPH, a discussion about drug pricing with Mark Cuban and Ezekiel Emmanuel, MD, PhD, and a seminar focused on the future of health policy after the Supreme Court's reversal of Chevron deference.

PSOM faculty are invited to upcoming LDI events:

- Virtual Seminar: Integrating Care for Dually Eligible Beneficiaries
Friday, December 6, 2024 | 12:00–1:00pm | Register Here
Speakers: Aisha Adkins, MPA, CNP, Toyin Ajayi, MD, MPhil, Matthew Behrens, MPA, and Melanie Bella, MBA, moderated by Rachel M. Werner, MD, PhD
- Research Seminar: Craig Pollack, MD, MHS of Johns Hopkins
Thursday, January 9, 2025 | 12:00–1:00pm | Colonial Penn Center, 3641 Locust Walk | Register Here
- Research Seminar with Maggie Shi, PhD of the University of Chicago
The Limits of Spending Limits: Evidence from the Medicare Therapy Cap
Thursday, January 14, 2025 | 12:00–1:00pm | Colonial Penn Center, 3641 Locust Walk | Register Here

Plus, Penn LDI's new training course on op-ed writing for health policy concluded last month, drawing attendees from across the country. If you are interested in learning more about this virtual learning opportunity and be the first to hear about course registration for 2025, click here.