A SIMPLE EXERCISE

To help stay calm in the face of COVID-19 uncertainty from Dr. Martin Seligman, director of Penn’s Positive Psychology Center.

1. Ask yourself, "What is the worst possible situation?"
2. Force yourself to think about the best outcome
3. Consider what’s most likely to happen
4. Develop a plan for the most realistic scenario