

What Are The Learning Objectives?

At the end of this module, direct care staff will be able to:

- Describe the stages of dementia
- Distinguish between specific cognitive impairments resulting from dementia
- Link specific cognitive impairments with the disabilities they cause
- Give examples of cognitive impairments and disabilities
- Describe what to do when there is an acute change in cognitive or functional status

