

Your ID _____

Today's Date __/__/__

Participant Post-Test

Circle T if the statement is True, F if the statement is false

Example:

This is a test.

T F

1. Ability to perform activities of daily living is completely lost when a patient develops dementia. T F
2. Persons with Alzheimer's disease may live as long as 15 years after the disease begins. T F
3. Stroke is the most common cause of dementia. T F
4. Approximately two-thirds of all nursing home residents have dementia. T F
5. There is currently no cure for any of the illnesses that can cause dementia. T F
6. In the middle stages of Alzheimer's disease, a person may be able to dress him/herself, even though he/she can't remember where his/her clothes are kept. T F
7. Alzheimer's disease leads to death of brain cells. T F

Circle the letter of the best answer.

Example:

Which of these is NOT a season:

- a. Winter
- b. Autumn
- c. Summer
- d. Easter
- e. Spring

8. Persons with dementia can have problems with:

- a. Recognition
- b. Speech
- c. Memory
- d. Executing motor tasks
- e. Any of the above

9. Apraxia due to dementia may cause problems with:

- a. Speaking in sentences
- b. Pulling a zipper
- c. Sleeping through the night
- d. Recognizing family members
- e. Getting lost

Your ID _____

Today's Date __/__/__

Participant Post-Test: Instructor's KEY

Correct answers are in Circled bold italic

Circle T if the statement is True, F if the statement is false

Example:

This is a test.

T

F

1. Ability to perform activities of daily living is completely lost when a patient develops dementia. T F
2. Persons with Alzheimer's disease may live as long as 15 years after the disease begins. T F
3. Stroke is the most common cause of dementia. T F
4. Approximately two-thirds of all nursing home residents have dementia. T F
5. There is currently no cure for any of the illnesses that can cause dementia. T F
6. In the middle stages of Alzheimer's disease, a person may be able to dress him/herself, even though he/she can't remember where his/her clothes are kept. T F
7. Alzheimer's disease leads to death of brain cells. T F

Circle the letter of the best answer.

Example:

Which of these is NOT a season:

- a. Winter
- b. Autumn
- c. Summer
- d. Easter
- e. Spring

8. Persons with dementia can have problems with:
- a. Recognition
 - b. Speech
 - c. Memory
 - d. Executing motor tasks
 - e. Any of the above
9. Apraxia due to dementia may cause problems with:
- a. Speaking in sentences
 - b. Pulling a zipper
 - c. Sleeping through the night
 - d. Recognizing family members
 - e. Getting lost

