

Your ID _____

Today's Date __/__/__

Participant Pre-Test

Circle the letter of the best answer.

Example:

Which of these is NOT a season:

- a. Winter
- b. Autumn
- c. Summer
- ☒ d. Easter
- e. Spring

1. The team approach to reducing Adverse Drug Events (ADEs) includes:

- a. Certified Nursing Assistants
- b. Licensed Nurses
- c. Pharmacists
- d. Dietitians
- e. All of the above
- f. None of the above

2. Older adults are likely to have ADEs because:

- a. They are not used to taking medications.
- b. They take their medications with lots of water.
- c. They take many medications.
- d. They use generic medications.

Circle T if the statement is True, F if the statement is false

Example:

This is a test.

☒ T

☐ F

- | | | |
|---|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 3. The most common sign of an ADE in older people is a change in mental status. | <input type="radio"/> T | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 4. Nurses can help prevent ADEs by questioning the need for each prescribed medication. | <input type="radio"/> T | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 5. About one-half of adverse drug events that occur in a long term care facility are preventable. | <input type="radio"/> T | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 6. An average long term care facility has about 10 ADEs per month. | <input type="radio"/> T | <input type="radio"/> F |
| 7. Medications on the Beers list should never be used for older adults. | <input type="radio"/> T | <input type="radio"/> F |

Thank you. Please return to instructor.

Your ID _____

Today's Date __/__/__

Participant Pre-Test: Instructor's KEY

Correct answers are in Circled bold italic

Circle the letter of the best answer.

Example:

Which of these is NOT a season:

- a. Winter
- b. Autumn
- c. Summer
- (d.) Easter
- e. Spring

1. The team approach to reducing Adverse Drug Events (ADEs) includes:

- a. Certified Nursing Assistants
- b. Licensed Nurses
- c. Pharmacists
- d. Dietitians
- (e.) All of the above
- f. None of the above

2. Older adults are likely to have ADEs because:

- a. They are not used to taking medications.
- b. They take their medications with lots of water.
- (c.) They take many medications.
- d. They use generic medications.

Circle T if the statement is True, F if the statement is false

Example:

This is a test.

T

F

3. The most common sign of an ADE in older people is a change in mental status. ☒ T F
4. Nurses can help prevent ADEs by questioning the need for each prescribed medication. ☒ T F
5. About one-half of adverse drug events that occur in a long term care facility are preventable. ☒ T F
6. An average long term care facility has about 10 ADEs per month. ☒ T F
7. Medications on the Beers list should never be used for older adults. T ☒ F

Thank you. Please return to instructor.

