

Penn Radiology Global Health Imaging Case Competition

The Global Health Imaging Case Report Competition is a collaboration between the Departments of Radiology at Penn Medicine and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), along with the Perelman School of Medicine Center for Global Health. It was designed for medical trainees in low- and middle-income countries to present cases unique to their region. The free virtual webinar event features presentations by the finalists.

Case
Competition
Focus: Asia

Abstracts Due: June 20th, 2025

Why Participate?

This event provides a platform for networking, professional advancements, and learning while having, and potentially winning prize money.

Cash Prizes

1st Place - $1000
2nd Place - $500
3rd Place - $250
People's Choice - $250

Submit Abstracts

Zoom Registration

farouk.dako@penmedicine.upenn.edu
OTEROH@chop.edu

Case Competition Website