

Penn Radiology Global Health Imaging Case Competition

The Global Health Imaging Case Report Competition is a collaboration between the Departments of Radiology at Penn Medicine and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), along with the Perelman School of Medicine Center for Global Health. It was designed for medical trainees in low- and middle-income countries to present cases unique to their region. The free virtual webinar event features presentations by the finalists, and a keynote speaker.

Case
Competition
Focus: Asia
& Oceania

Friday, January
19th, 2024
9PM (EST)

Abstracts Due December 5th
@ 9 am EST

Why Participate?

This event provides a platform for networking, professional advancements, and learning while having, and potentially winning prize money.

Cash Prizes

1st Place - $1000
2nd Place - $500
3rd Place - $250
People's Choice - $250

Abstract Submission

Zoom Registration

 farouk.dako@pennmedicine.upenn.edu
OTEROH@chop.edu

 Case Competition Website