

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Summer Training in Aging Research

JUNE 12 – AUGUST 11, 2023

BENEFITS

- 9-week research experience with a $4,500 stipend
- Student empowerment fostered through faculty mentoring
- Classroom-based learning and hands-on application

ELIGIBILITY

- Current undergraduate, graduate or medical school student
- Full-time in any year or degree program

Identities and experiences the reviewers will consider:

Students from underrepresented groups (URG), such as:

- Racial/ethnic identities such as but not limited to Black or African/American, Latino/Hispanic
- Persons with disabilities
- First generation college attendees
- Persons with disadvantaged socioeconomic backgrounds
- Persons who identify as LGBTQ
- Residents of Pennsylvania

APPLICATION

- A cover letter with your name, address, email, and telephone number. As well as your enrolled university, major, and year of study.
- A two-page essay: (1) Background including any identities or experiences (see list above) to be considered (2) Interest in research or care of older adults with neurodegenerative disease such as Alzheimer's (3) Commitment to health equity with a focus on the regional Philadelphia Black community (4) How this internship will advance your future studies and career (single-spaced, 12-point font with one-inch margin)
- Unofficial college transcript
- Resume
- Two letters of reference

HOW DO I APPLY?

Contact:

Dr. Kathy Jedrzejewski at

jedrzmk@upenn.edu

Application Deadline: March 17, 2023

<https://penmemorycenter.org/training/>