Operational Guidelines for the Perelman School of Medicine
Departmental Committees on Appointments and Promotions

Effective July 1, 2021
Revised May 1, 2022

A. Purpose
In accord with the Faculty Handbook, this document provides uniform operational guidelines for the PSOM Departments and their Departmental Committees on Appointments and Promotions (DCOAP) to provide faculty members with the benefit of optimal departmental review at the times of appointment, reappointment and promotion. It is intended to provide suitable flexibility for the different circumstances of individual departments.

The overriding objective of the faculty appointment and promotions policy and procedures should be the recruitment and retention of a distinguished faculty. Accordingly, a high degree of excellence is expected in clinical care, research and teaching. The initial determination of competence should be made by the scholars and clinicians in the same or closely related disciplines, subject to subsequent review at the School and University levels.

The Chair of the Departmental COAP must make every effort to ensure compliance with the policies and procedures of the University of Pennsylvania and the Perelman School of Medicine relating to faculty appointments, reappointments and promotions, including timely filing requirements. The Chair of the Medical School COAP meets annually, and as necessary, with the Departmental COAP Chairs to review administrative matters related to faculty appointments, reappointments and promotions.

All Department COAP business is confidential.

B. Membership
• Departmental COAP Chair
  o Is appointed by the Department Chair and cannot be the Department Chair.
  o Whenever possible, should be a Professor with tenure in the Perelman School of Medicine.
  o Should have a 3-year term that can be renewable.
  o Generally, and if not, in consultation with the Office of Academic Affairs, should not hold a leadership role such as Vice Chair, Division Chief, etc. In departments with fewer than 10 standing faculty professors, Departmental Vice Chairs can serve as the DCOAP Chair.
• Committee Members
  o Are appointed by the Department Chair in consultation with the DCOAP Chair.
o The Department Chair is an Ex-Officio member.
o The Committee shall comprise at least three faculty members, in addition to the Department Chair, qualified to vote on the faculty candidate under consideration. For smaller departments, in order to meet the PSOM voting requirements, it may be necessary to invite qualified senior tenure or clinician-educator from other departments to become regular voting members of the DCOAP. Such faculty would be recommended by the department for secondary appointments with voting rights.
o The Education Officer shall provide reports of educational activities for candidates as applicable. EOs may have formal dossier review and voting responsibilities.
o The Vice Chairs of Faculty (unless acting as Departmental COAP Chair), shall be ex officio members.
o If the department has Academic Clinicians, there shall be a senior AC member appointed to the department COAP.
o If the department has Research Track faculty, consideration should be given for senior representation on the Department COAP.
o Retired/emeritus faculty shall not be members.
o COAP members shall have 3-year terms with the option to renew. By July 1 annually, the Department Chair will submit a list of the Departmental COAP members (including rank and track) to the Office of Academic Affairs.
o All members must sign a confidentiality agreement at the beginning of their terms.
o All members must participate annually in development programs offered by Academic Affairs to remain current on policies and procedures.
