To edit the relevant NIH Cap used in a query – In Design Mode locate the variable in the variable editor (note icon on the far left) related to the cell formula being used and just put in the new value. In the example below we are editing the old cap 197,300 to 199,300. No commas should be in the formula. The column header and any calculations will be updated to the new NIH Cap.