

Management of Infants
Requiring ICN Admission,
Based on Maternal COVID-19 testing 4/12/20

Maternal clinical status at delivery

NOTE: Pediatric residents should not attend deliveries where maternal testing is PENDING or POSITIVE

Asymptomatic Symptomatic/PUI

Maternal COVID-19 test status at delivery

Maternal COVID-19 test status at delivery

Negative

Pending

Positive

Positive

Pending

Negative

Routine ICN care
Standard precautions

Delivery PPE: N95/eye protection/gown/gloves
Admit infant to ICN

Room air infants:
Surgical mask/eye protection/
gown/gloves, in isolette

Infant on CPAP or intubated:
Admit to negative pressure room
Airborne precautions

Follow up maternal test result

Maternal test results
available

Negative

Positive

Delivery PPE:
N95/eye protection/gown/gloves
Admit infant to ICN

Room air infants:
Surgical mask/eye protection/
gown/gloves, in isolette

Infant on CPAP or intubated:
Admit to negative pressure room
Airborne precautions

Delivery PPE:
N95/eye protection/gown/gloves
Admit infant to ICN

Room air infants:
Surgical mask/eye protection/
gown/gloves, in isolette

Infant on CPAP or intubated:
Admit to negative pressure room
Airborne precautions

Follow up maternal test result

Maternal test results
available

Positive

Negative

Delivery PPE: standard
Routine ICN care

If suspicion for COVID-19 remains high and no other etiology for symptoms is found, mother may be considered a PUI based on OB discretion.
If mother is considered a PUI, infant should be treated per "Care of the infant born to a mother with suspected or confirmed COVID-19" guideline