

Management of Infants
≥ 35 Weeks and Well,
Based on Maternal COVID-19 testing 4/12/20

Maternal clinical status at delivery

NOTE: Pediatric residents should not attend deliveries where maternal testing is PENDING or POSITIVE

Asymptomatic

Symptomatic/PUI

Maternal COVID-19 test status at delivery

Maternal COVID-19 test status at delivery

Negative

Pending

Positive

Positive

Pending

Negative

Routine newborn care

Delivery PPE: N95/eye protection/
gown/gloves

Baby may remain in LDR, skin to skin and breastfeeding ok
Follow up maternal test results

Maternal test results
available

Negative

Positive

Delivery PPE: N95/eye protection/
gown/gloves

Infant separation per policy (see attached guidelines
for delivery and infant care)

Delivery PPE: N95/eye protection/
gown/gloves

Infant separation per policy
(see attached guidelines
for delivery and infant care)

Follow up maternal test results

Maternal test results
available

Positive

Negative

Continue infant separation per policy
(see attached guidelines
for delivery and infant care)

Standard delivery PPE
Routine newborn care

If suspicion for COVID-19 remains high and no other etiology for symptoms is found, mother may be considered a PUI based on OB discretion.
In this case, infant separation is recommended per "Care of the Infant Born to Mother with Suspected or Confirmed COVID-19" guideline.