Lunch with Leaders LIVECast: Leading to Improve Community Health

November 18, 2021

What's in the Mail?

What did you enjoy about the last session: Delivering Value at Penn Medicine?

I am SO grateful for Lunch with Leaders – it is an amazing show and I always learn something new.

Many thanks to you and your team!

Nida Al-Ramahi, MHA, CSSGB
Director of Strategic Operations
Office of the CMO and CQO

Excellent all around. Panelists were great, insightful with valuable advice

Great information. I especially liked learning about "Informational Interviews" (a term I had not previously heard), as well as to hear that other folks in successful positions had doubts about their ability to take on the next position, but folks around them knew they were....so to go for it.

I like hearing about the career paths of senior leaders
